These two New Yorkers were the Ultra Flex employees who asked if I would visit the World Trade Centre on my day off. I replied “NO!”, explaining my fear of a 9/11 style hijacking & attack on the buildings. I asked them who I could give this warning to & they fetched Dan Bar-Kochba. I repeated my warning to him in detail & Bar-Kochba said he’d pass my warning & my business card on to his security services contacts.
